

We'd like to give a wonderful recommendation for Lynn & Bill Eldon. My wife and I have known their family for over four years now. I am a pastor at a church in Ellijay, His House Christian Fellowship. Through working together at church our families have also grown close on a personal level.

Lynn has shown herself to be very trustworthy and responsible in many projects. She steps up to take on a challenge and has been a key part in some of our fund raising projects. She leads our Women's Ministry and Prayer Ministry where she shows her compassion and giving spirit. She's excellent with people and cares enough to follow up with each one individually.

She has a tender heart towards the Lord and does things that only He will reward her for her the behind the scene sacrifices. She is very responsible and I'd trust her with any secret or with any task. She'd get it done and I wouldn't have to worry about my name or the church's name because I'm confident that she does it with integrity.

Bill is a soft-spoken man but stands tall on principles. He is a loving husband who works well with Lynn or any of the church members. Even though, because of his work schedule, he hasn't taken on any big projects at church, he has always made himself available to counsel others, sacrificing his own personal time. We depend on his availability for many errands and short projects.

He also is a man that we trust with money and our church's reputation. Anyone would be blessed to have Bill on their side in any endeavor.

Sincerely,
Pastor Jerald Brown
